CHEMSPEC USA JOINS REGIONAL WATERBORNE CONFERENCE

ORRVILLE, OH – JUNE 2009 – ChemSpec USA announces their commitment to exhibit at the first annual Waterborne conference hosted by BodyShop Business magazine Aug. 13-14 in Huron, Ohio. The regional Waterborne Conference was created to help answer questions and myths regarding waterborne conversion.

Body shop owners and managers will get the opportunity to hear several expert speakers and talk one-on-one with many of the leading waterborne suppliers like ChemSpec USA. The conference includes a small trade show and breakout sessions with well-known industry professionals who have extensive experience with waterborne products and can speak directly about the conversion. Attendees will be able to take the new I-CAR Waterborne Products, Systems and Application Training Program as well.

Featuring a broad range from their Metalux2™ Premium International Refinish system to their Big Sky® Specialty Refinish products, and the new Hydrolux™ Waterborne system, ChemSpec employs the latest technology to manufacture outstanding products for the automotive, fleet and industrial markets at very competitive prices.
